Mr. V. V. Collier,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Collier:

I am getting up all of the data possible on the desendants of Issac Collier, who came from England to America along about 1650. Issac's son Issac married Annie Vines, the daughter of Thomas Vines, of Virginia, and they had a son by the name of Vines, who moved from Virginia to Georgia in 1780.

I am the great-great-grandson of Vines Collier that settled in Wilkes County, Georgia, at that time; hence reason I am getting up all the data possible.

The last time I was in Washington City, last July, I intended to call on you and make your personal acquaintance, but at the last moment my time was taken up and I had to take the train out. I have quite a few friends in Washington City; also some relatives.

If you have no objections in sending me the data, filling out the enclosed questionnaire, would appreciate same.

With kind regards, I beg to remain

Yours most respectfully,

JCC:S
